Remarks: This was an open mic event which was open to all students and staff of Yenepoya University and was arranged in the indoor auditorium. The audience sat in a semicircle around the speaker. All forms of literature were allowed to be shared (poetry, book reading, elocution, stand up comedy, journal entries, anecdotes etc). It was a fun event which helped in cultivating public speaking and was a good platform for budding poets to share their poetry with their peers.
